

Nectar Network Knowledge is an IT training provider and developer based in Sydney, Australia.

We specialise in the delivery and development of courses based on Internet technologies, from TCP/IP to MPLS and Voice over IP.

Consultancy services include network design for VoIP networks, particularly those based around Cisco or Enterasys hardware, including Cisco CallManager IP Telephony solution.

Our mission is to provide customers with the knowledge they need to make critical IT business decisions.